

Human Rights & Ethical Trading Commitment

Metallogic Solutions Ltd.

Our commitment

Metallogic Solutions Ltd. is committed to upholding human rights and conducting its business in a manner that is ethical, transparent and free from any form of modern slavery, forced labour or human trafficking.

We recognise that although our business is small, the principles of ethical trading are a matter of conduct irrespective of scale.

Scope

This commitment applies to all activities and business relationships of Metallogic Solutions Ltd., including engagements with clients, suppliers, sub-contractors and any other third parties with whom we work.

Commitment to quality standards

We will:

- Conduct all business activities with integrity and in compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and all applicable UK and international human rights legislation.
- Never knowingly engage with, support or benefit from any business or individual involved in modern slavery, forced labour, child labour or human trafficking.
- Apply ethical considerations when selecting suppliers and professional service providers.
- Remain alert to indicators of modern slavery or labour exploitation in our business environment and report any concerns through appropriate channels.
- Support clients and partners who share a commitment to ethical trading and human rights.

Supply chain

As a specialist technical consultancy, Metallogic Solutions Ltd. operates with a limited and carefully managed supply chain, consisting primarily of professional services providers such as accountancy, legal and IT support.

We are satisfied that the risk of modern slavery within our supply chain is low, and we remain vigilant to ensure it remains as such.

Responsibility

As Director of Metallogic Solutions Ltd., I take personal responsibility for ensuring this commitment is upheld in all aspects of our business.

It will be reviewed annually and updated as the business evolves.

Signature

I, James Lennard CEng MIMMM, as the Director and accountable person at Metallogic Solutions Ltd., undersign this statement:
